WANTED TO BUY FOR PATTI'S COLLECTION

Nicely enameled coins from the late 19th century, silver, copper or gold. Foreign or US. Pins, necklaces, bracelets or unmounted examples.

ITEM		PRICE
1	Outstanding California gentleman's dress knife signed "F. Watson-Maker-Colusa Cal." Overall length 9½, engraved German silver grip inlaid with six square slabs of petrified wood and abalone. Believed to be the only known knife signed by Watson. The Watson attributed knife in Levine's book is not marked. Superb condition with the exception of cracks in one petrified wood inlay. The Watson markings are strong and sharp. A treasure!	25,000.
2	A duplicate from my own collection of antislavery ceramics. 1¾ octagonal jasperware plaque, white relief on mustard ground, kneeling slave in chains. Circa 1787-1790, unmarked, probably an experimental Wedgwood piece that was never put into production. Mint.	2,000.
3	1793 large cent, flowing hair, wreath reverse. Overall VG details, even wear, pleasing surfaces. Small initials SS cut into reverse blend in well, not obvious to naked eye. Very reasonable at	750.
4	Rare 1758 silver medal issued during the French & Indian War, portrait Louis XV proclaiming him Emperor of the World, scene of 4 strategic fortresses, including Fort Oswego, the capture of which by Montcalms forces was a major blow to the British (Americans). Nice VF-XF, a couple scratches. Betts 415	750.
5	Lincoln/Hamlin ferrotype, superb condition, the best I've had in years	950.
6	Very large gold quartz nugget 1½" across, weighs 63 grams (over 2 ounces)	1,700.
7	Of all the pieces I've offered in 22 years of catalogs, this is one of my favorites. Custom made 2¾ police badge in gold vermeil with sterling relief devices, reverse engraved "To Buffalo Bill Cody Honorary Police Chief NYC, From Theodore Roosevelt Pres NYC Police BD...Marcus & Co NYC". In original hinged case with label of Marcus & Co, who were renowned jewelers comparable to Tiffany. TR was Pres of the Board of Police Commissioners from 1895-97. Note that the reverse brooch pin is intact - it was opened upwards to clearly photograph the engraving.	14,000.
8	2½ silver hand engraved Masonic jewel dated 1808. Scales of justice, sunburst, etc. "Virtue shall cement US", with US in oversized elaborate script, an obvious reference to the United States. Reverse "Stephen Tuttle Junr". Superb condition!	450.
9	Fine gold quartz pocket watch by Amer Watch Co, Waltham, fully enclosed 14K gold hunting case, lever set 15 jewel movement. Diameter 1⅝. Large circular quartz panel divided into quarters, scattered rose coloring with lots of gold. A beauty, 1880's.	9,750.
10	1¼ gilt pin with red/wht/blue enamel, flags with sword and fire trumpet "Col Ellsworth-NYF Zouaves - Champion".	500.
11	Unique naval medal engraved on the planed reverse of a Queen Victoria young head sixpence. Named in center "S Brown, Sheerness, Kent", surrounded by "SHANNON-1st June 1813". He was presumably a sailor on board the Shannon during its battle with the Chesapeake, where Captain James Lawrence achieved immortality with his command "Don't Give Up the Ship"as he lay dying.	675.
12	Extremely rare red/wht/blue/blk woven silk in pristine condition.	3,750.
13	Outstanding half plate daguerreotype of four miners at work. One is in the pit digging with a pick. At the right another uses some sort of hand pump. The two at left center are working the long sluice box. The photographer added gold tinted nuggets to the sluice and to a pan lying beside the trench! Excellent condition in full leather case.	32,000.
14	Autographed carte de visite Robert E Lee, bright and excellent with only the slightest soiling. No backmark, vignetted copy from Brady. A classic piece of Americana!	5,250.
15	(darker areas at corners are clear acetate photo mounts) Rare runaway slave broadside issued during the Civil War, St Joseph MO Sept 14 1861. Negro man Ned ran away from Benj Dickson at Owens Landing "on my way to Texas". Description of him & his clothing, etc. 10X13½ in expensive custom frame 18X21½. One small hole, overall excellent.	3,250.
16	Unique two-sided banner 35X45 on original wood rods top and bottom (not shown). John Brough was elected Governor of Ohio in a landslide victory over one of Lincoln's arch enemies, the copperhead Clement Vallandigham. Taylor Township apparently no longer exists. The front is black/white with a blue border, excellent condition with some light foxing. The photo of the reverse might come out dark, but its bright and bold, black slogan "No Compromise With Traitors" on red background with blue border. Separation above and between letters NO, small losses to letter O, small hole above S in Compromise. Reverse overall fine plus, the mentioned faults being minor. The only Lincoln banner I've had in the last 10-15 years.	11,500.
18	No doubt the rarest Annie Oakley photo I've had. Cabinet photo by Gray of Boston showing her in pretty lace bodice dress with large bow at chest. Around her high lace collar she wears a portrait brooch of Johnny Baker's children. Reverse signed in ink "Compliments of Annie Oakley". A nearly identical pose is shown on page 147 of Buffalo Bills Wild West by Wilson & Martin.	8,750.
19	Extremely rare cartoon print by Robinson 1837, in design of 50 cent shinplaster. Nicholas Biddle stands atop Bank of US at right. Jackson on a pig and Benton on a donkey pursue a "gold humbug" over the cliff. Van Buren rides fox around the safe direction. "I promise to pay Thomas H Benton or bearer Fifty Cents in Counterfeit Caricatures at my store...H R Robinson, NY...". Minor bit of foxing, light old folds not noticeable.	2,500.
20	I've handled gun related advertising for 20 years, but I never knew this piece existed until I bought it. Peters Cartridge Co 1901 dated lithographed cartridge board by Strobridge, 25X34 (sight) in fine oak frame 30X39. Brilliant multicolor on high gloss paper over linen. Large factory scene on river with wagons, train, etc. View of dozens of cartridges shotshells, primer tins, including cutaway views. 22 rimfires spell out PCC at top. Generally superb condition, minor tear to paper in beaded frame design border at upper right, not touching any of the images.	6,000.
21	Exc rare large 29X32 silk kerchief. Borders, lettering & flag in bright red/blue. Cannon in brown tones. There are a few scattered small holes & some separations as expected with thin silk, & the white background has some minor light stains. Only significant damage is small losses in the extreme lower left corner, affecting a 2" section of the outer red stripe. Made by Foster, Porter & Co, London. Will be spectacular when properly framed.	1,450.
22	Spanish dollar (8 reales) counterstamped "Gen Andrew Jackson 1827". Unique	175.
23	Lewis Cass large white metal LC 1848-1, Sub Treasury and Tariff of Forty Six. XF	400.
24	The only Clay design attributed to 1836 "Henry Clay of Kentucky/Equal & Full Protection...". Wht met, VF+. HC 1836-1	150.
25	Seymour/Blair large shell medalet, portraits and names, XF with much original silvering. HS 1868-14	250.
26	Scarce Henry Clay shell 1844-56. Bust Clay/balance scale showing Whigs outweighing Democrats, date 1840 above. DeWitts reasoning in calling this an 1844 item is unclear, since the matching reverse was used by both Harrison and Van Buren in 1840. This obverse wasn't seen on any other 1844 pieces, but matches both WHH/MVB obverses from 1840 as well. Clay was a serious contender for the 1840 nomination, and actually was the leader on the first ballot at the Whig convention. XF	400.

33 I know this photo won't come out, but the item itself is bright and clear. Celluloid flip pin, black/wht card under bright blue cello cover. "It is a Good Thing - Pull the String". It flips over to elaborate Wilson-Marshall jugate "That is All". Unique design I've never seen before, on shield with eagle above and fasces between portraits. Excellent 850.

LATE ADDITIONS TO FILL SPACE

695 Rare medical corps grouping of Maxwell Simpson, including perfect condition commission as Assistant Surgeon signed by Pres McKinley. Flag 36 X 61 with handwritten inscription in ink along edge "Dr M S Simpson USN, Major and Surgeon USV-Boston...Key West, Neuevitis, Santiago, San Francisco, Manila, Nagasaki...Taku Forts...Guantanamo, Havana, Dutch Harbor, Macabebe, Subric, Honolulu, Pekin, New York" plus other places. USN Spanish Campaign medal #4406, two different enamel Eighth Corps badges, AVFS medal, a couple of insignia, Span Am New Jersey Volunteer medal, and a rare Med Corps cap with medal insignia, burgundy/wht piping. All in nice condition except for some normal wear to flag. 1,350.

696 Pair of brilliant multicolor glazed chintz panels, trimmed in deep burgundy. Each panel is 38 X 96 with smooth trim on one side, ruffled on the opposite. Each contains six repeats of a bright & vivid panel titled "The Battle of Buena Vista 1847". This is identical to Collins #200 but with the addition of the title in large script below the cannon (above the tents). Collins is correct in that the scene illustrates the capture of General Vega by Captain May at Resaca de la Palma. The example in Collins is green/brown/wht cotton with no title. This is red/wht/blue/brown/yellow/pink/green. Small figure of Taylor in distance directing the battle, American encampment top center, rows of infantry, dragoons charge at side. Collins stated that this design had always been known as Buena Vista, and now we know why. The colors are bolder than any other textile I've seen from this period. Condition is virtually mint. I bought these years ago intending to use them somewhere in our new home, but we just can't seem to find an appropriate place for them. 8,000.

DOLLARS
REWARD!
Runaway from the subscriber on the 12th inst., at Owen's Landing on the Mo. river (on my way to Texas) a negro man named RED, aged about 25 years, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, dark color with glossy skin, and his face inclined to be bumpy, will weigh about 140 lbs. He was finely dressed, and is a genteel and proud negro. He had on when he left a dark colored cloth overcoat with a cape.
I will give for the apprehension of said boy and his confinement in jail until my return from Texas, which will be in about 30 or 40 days, ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

Judge Crazy Walking

Of the Indian Court at Standing Rock Agency

AT ONE TIME CRAZY Walking was a member of the Indian Police, who took part in the arrest of Sitting Bull, after the death of Chief Gall and John Grass. They were the judges of the Indian Court. Crazy Walking was appointed to the Judgeship of that Court which had been so ably filled by Chief Gall and John Grass. The late Chief Justice Waite of the United States Supreme Court visited at Standing Rock Agency years ago. When Gall and John Grass were still Chief Judge Waite was the Big Chief of that Court, as the Bears of the Great Lakes they said they would like to visit the Court and see how its work was done. In all the tribes of the North American Indians you will not find two Judges that Chief Gall and Chief John Grass. Their sons find and pass you all you were entitled to.
